15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

KRM DAV College, Nakodar is a multidisciplinary institution. It is fully geared to implement the NEP-2020. Since Punjab government and GNDU, Amritsar to which the college is affiliated to have not yet instructed the colleges across the state to implement the NEP-2020, the college has not so far taken any step in that direction. However, the college has the potential to teach multidisciplinary courses. The college is successfully running Arts, Science and Commerce streams, and it is easy for it to club STEM and new provision envisaged in NEP to Humanities and Commerce.

16. Academic bank of credits (ABC):

The college understands the meaning and significance of ABC and once it receives green signal from the authorities, it will implement ABC.

17. Skill development:

The college has been making efforts to impart vocational and skill based education at the college. It runs following skill based courses: Advanced Diploma in Trainee Chef & Multi-Cuisine Cook, Diploma in Beauty Therapist & Wellness Expert, Diploma in Nanny and Elderly care, Advanced Diploma in Cutting, Tailoring & Fashion Designing and Diploma in Basic Computers. The Diploma in Beauty Therapist & Wellness, Diploma in Cutting, Tailoring & Fashion Designing and Diploma in Basic Computer provide a fertile ground for the students to pursue these courses in UG programmes (Home Science & Bachelor of Computers). Besides, the college organises lectures on various cross-cutting issues to make students aware of core issues that beset humanity besides imparting a robust value-based education to them.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

The college integrates oriental mode of Indian education with the modern mode of education.The ancient language 'Sanskrit' is being taught at the college. Our being an Arya Samaj institution, we hold 'Havan Yajana' to invoke His blessings. Besides, we teach Yoga to our students and hold our traditional fair and festivals Teej, Diwali, Lohri etc).The vernaculars(Punjabi & Hindi) along with English are also taught at the college. Therefore, when NEP is implemented, the college'll face no problem in integrating traditional mode of education with the modern system of education.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

The college offers a good number of practical subjects to develop employment skills of its students. Besides, it organises seminars/lectures/extracurricular activities to hone latent talent of students.Thrust is also kept on the enhancement of soft skills. Once NEP is implemented, the college will pursue outcome based education aggressively.

20.Distance education/online education:

The college successfully experimented with Distance mode of education and it conducted two short duration programmes. The college faculty makes an extensive use of gadgets to impart education to its students.They post their audio, video lectures and other relevant information/content to students viaWhatsapp and Facebook.

Hence, KRM DAV College is well- prepared to implement NEP-2020.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Curricular aspects of courses taught at KRM DAV College, Nakodar are governed by GNDU, Amritsar. Since the college is affiliated to GNDU, Amritsar, it teaches curriculum which the university prescribes for different classes. For the effective delivery and implementation of the prescribed curriculum, the college applies the following various strategies which are given as under:

At the start of the academic session, the college holds induction/ orientation programme, especially for the students who seek admission to the college for the first time. Here, they are introduced to their curriculum.

For the effective delivery of curriculum, the college holds in-house exams to assess whether or not the contents of the curriculum delivered so far have been understood by the students

Every teacher prepares a list of important questions and shares it with students. The aim of preparing a question bank is to make students familiar with types of questions that can be asked in the final examination. Every previous years university questions are too discussed The focus here is again on curriculum and its delivery.

The college organises extension lectures on a few difficult topics in certain subjects to make the difficult contents of the prescribed curriculum easy and understandable for students.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The institution assesses the learning level of its students, and it has developed its mechanism to assess the learning levels of its students. At the start of the academic session, the faculty holds interaction with the students. This interaction is done to have a peep into the learning levels of the students. The faculty holds discussion sessions with the students. The aim of the exercise is to know as to where students stand academically. Personal interactions are also held with the students. They are also given an opportunity to explain their point of view on different topics/issues. The faculty holds formal and informal meetings with the students. Seminars are often organised to add to the knowledge of the fast learners. They are often encouraged to read advanced books on the topics prescribed in the syllabus. Teachers often send links of good books or material to such students. However, the teachers hold meeting sessions with slow learners and make difficult concepts of the prescribed syllabus clear to them. Their learning levels are constantly monitored by holding meetings with them both outside and inside the class.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

Internal assessment of the students is done by teachers. The system of internal assessment is transparent. The tentative schedule of in-house exams is announced in the beginning of the session. The seating arrangement of the students is also pasted outside the class. After the exams, the answer books of the students are evaluated within a stipulated period. The answer books of the students are given/shown to the students. They are asked to check discrepancies, if any in their evaluated texts. Discrepancies are addressed promptly. Then, the marks are tabulated and submitted to the general office. The students are asked to analyse the previous years university question papers. This exercise helps students know both the pattern and the style of the exam. Besides, it helps teachers assess the understanding level of students the various topics prescribed on the syllabus. The attendance of the students is also monitored as a part of their internal assessment. Students are motivated to take part in extra-curricular activities. The performance of the students in these activities also help the institution to evaluate the performance of students.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

1 Title of the Practice - Sukayna Shiksha Yojana

2 Obejctive of the Practice To provide higher education to the poor and meritorious girls students

The Context:- To provide higher education to girls .

The Practice :- SSY was launched on May 30,2021 on the occasion of online Alumni Meet. As per the practice, the philanthropists would fund the education of a deserving girl child for three years. The entire fee is paid by the donors except the university registration and examination fee.

Evidence of success - So far, this scheme has benefitted a total of 28 students.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

Finding donors for the scheme was a big challenge but it was managed.

1 Title of the Practice - Book Donation Campaign

2 Obejctive of the Practice To inculcate reading habit in students

The Context:- To route students to their roots (books), a book donation campaign was started.

The Practice :- The books donated by staff and others are kept in the library and are handed over to students.

Evidence of success - A minor improvement in the reading habits of students was witnessed.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: It was difficult to store donated books.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The college made huge efforts to increase the strength of students. The student strength dipped in the institutions of higher learning across Punjab. The students of Punjab had been showing keen interest to study abroad for several years. This had led to a considerable dip in the strength of students. However, the college vowed to reverse the trend. The task appeared tough, nay impossible. But the college was committed to increasing the student strength at the college. It had full faith in its hard work and the capabilities of its human resource. The college's academic outreach to its students during the pandemic via several e-learning platforms also contributed greatly to its mission. The college admitted a total of 199 students in the academic session 2020-2021. The very next year i.e in the academic year 2021-2022, there was a sharp increase in the strength of the students. A total of 315 students got admitted to the college, which was 58.29% of the last year strength that stood at 199. The success story that the college scripted became the buzz of the area. The Secretary Higher Education, Govt. Of Punjab also lauded the efforts of the Principal and the staff and issued an appreciation letter in this regard.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Curricular aspects of courses taught at KRM DAV College, Nakodar are governed by GNDU, Amritsar. Since the college is affiliated to GNDU, Amritsar, it teaches curriculum which the university prescribes for different classes. For the effective delivery and implementation of the prescribed curriculum, the college applies the following various strategies which are given as under:

At the start of the academic session, the college holds induction/ orientation programme, especially for the students who seek admission to the college for the first time. Here, they are introduced to their curriculum.

For the effective delivery of curriculum, the college holds in-house exams to assess whether or not the contents of the curriculum delivered so far have been understood by the students

Every teacher prepares a list of important questions and shares it with students . The aim of preparing a question bank is to make students familiar with types of questions that can be asked in the final examination. Every previous years university questions are too discussed The focus here is again on curriculum and its delivery.

The college organises extension lectures on a few difficult topics in certain subjects to make the difficult contents of the prescribed curriculum easy and understandable for students.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The institution assesses the learning level of its students, and it has developed its mechanism to assess the learning levels of its students. At the start of the academic session, the faculty holds interaction with the students. This interaction is done to have a peep into the learning levels of the students. The faculty holds discussion sessions with the students. The aim of the exercise is to know as to where students stand academically. Personal interactions are also held with the students. They are also given an opportunity to explain their point of view on different topics/issues. The faculty holds formal and informal meetings with the students. Seminars are often organised to add to the knowledge of the fast learners. They are often encouraged to read advanced books on the topics prescribed in the syllabus. Teachers often send links of good books or material to such students. However, the teachers hold meeting sessions with slow learners and make difficult concepts of the prescribed syllabus clear to them. Their learning levels are constantly monitored by holding meetings with them both outside and inside the class.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

Internal assessment of the students is done by teachers. The system of internal assessment is transparent. The tentative schedule of in-house exams is announced in the beginning of the session. The seating arrangement of the students is also pasted outside the class. After the exams, the answer books of the students are evaluated within a stipulated period. The answer books of the students are given/shown to the students. They are asked to check discrepancies, if any in their evaluated texts. Discrepancies are addressed promptly. Then, the marks are tabulated and submitted to the general office. The students are asked to analyse the previous years university question papers. This exercise helps students know both the pattern and the style of the exam. Besides, it helps teachers assess the understanding level of students the various topics prescribed on the syllabus. The attendance of the students is also monitored as a part of their internal assessment. Students are motivated to take part in extra-curricular activities. The performance of the students in these activities also help the institution to evaluate the performance of students.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

. The mechanism to address exam related grievances is kept simple and student friendly. Students are shown/given their evaluated answer-books and they are examined to re-examine them. They are also asked to report discrepancies related to to tallying, unchecked questions, interpretation of the answers or any other issue/s to the notice of the teacher concerned. The teachers remove discrepancies, if any and then submit the award list to the General Office of the college. Those students who have not received their answer books for any reason/s are instructed to know about their marks from the General Office. This whole exercise is finished within a few days. The discrepancies related to the names of the prize winners in both academic and extracurricular fields are addressed through the Registrar of the college. The Principal of the college also gives a patient hearing to the grievances of the students and tries to resolve them promptly and to the satisfaction of students.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

1 Title of the Practice - Sukayna Shiksha Yojana

2 Objective of the Practice To provide higher education to the poor and meritorious girls students

The Context:- To provide higher education to girls .

The Practice :- SSY was launched on May 30,2021 on the occasion of online Alumni Meet. As per the practice, the philanthropists would fund the education of a deserving girl child for three years. The entire fee is paid by the donors except the university registration and examination fee.

Evidence of success - So far, this scheme has benefitted a total of 28 students.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

Finding donors for the scheme was a big challenge but it was managed.

1 Title of the Practice - Book Donation Campaign

2 Objective of the Practice To inculcate reading habit in students

The Context:- To route students to their roots (books), a book donation campaign was started.

The Practice :- The books donated by staff and others are kept in the library and are handed over to students.

Evidence of success - A minor improvement in the reading habits of students was witnessed.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: It was difficult to store donated books.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The college made huge efforts to increase the strength of students. The student strength dipped in the institutions of higher learning across Punjab. The students of Punjab had been showing keen interest to study abroad for several years. This had led to a considerable dip in the strength of students. However, the college vowed to reverse the trend. The task appeared tough, nay impossible. But the college was committed to increasing the student strength at the college. It had full faith in its hard work and the capabilities of its human resource. The college's academic outreach to its students during the pandemic via several e- learning platforms also contributed greatly to its mission. The college admitted a total of 199 students in the academic session 2020-2021. The very next year i.e in the academic year 2021-2022, there was a sharp increase in the strength of the students. A total of 315 students got admitted to the college, which was 58.29% of the last year strength that stood at 199. The success story that the college scripted became the buzz of the area. The Secretary Higher Education , Govt. Of Punjab also lauded the efforts of the Principal and the staff and issued an appreciation letter in this regard.
